

Five Persons Injured In Tunis Street Riot

TUNIS, Tunisia, May 19 (AP) — Bombs and gunfire injured five persons last night and early today in scattered incidents throughout this strife-ridden French protectorate.

None of the injured, which included four Frenchmen, was seriously hurt. The Frenchmen were riding in a car between Sfax and Gaves last night when they were attacked by men armed with automatic weapons.

A Tunisian employe at the Sfax Postoffice was injured by a bomb that did considerable damage to the building.

Two stores were damaged by bombs in Tunis. The Tunisian owner of one of the stores said he believed the attack came because he had refused to contribute funds to the Nationalist movement which is demanding independence from the French.
